Enter this contest for an all-expenses-paid trip to the Citizens for Global Solutions planning meeting in Washington DC

HOW CITIZENS FOR GLOBAL SOLUTIONS CAN HELP SOLVE GLOBAL PROBLEMS
NOVEMBER 9-11, 2 0 1 8

_____

LEARN ABOUT THE THEORY OF CHANGE APPROACH TO PROMOTE A PEACEFUL, FREE, JUST, AND SUSTAINABLE WORLD COMMUNITY

Citizens for Global Solutions (CGS) of Greater St. Louis will pay for transportation, registration, meals, and lodging for two persons aged 18 to 30 at the time of the conference. Contest winners will be able to participate in this 2018 national planning meeting of Citizens for Global Solutions in Washington DC at no expense.

The meeting begins at 4:00 p.m. Friday, November 9, so you should be able to leave from the St. Louis airport Friday morning. The meeting ends at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, November 11 so you should be back to the St. Louis airport that evening. Getting to and from the St. Louis airport is completely your responsibility.

If you want to be a contestant for this all-expenses-paid trip, write a 3-5 page printed essay (double-spaced) consisting of 2 parts. In the 1st part tell us about your life and accomplishments. Why would you be a good person for us to send to this meeting? In the 2nd part share with us your thinking about one or more of the problems our world community faces plus how we individuals and our government should deal with them.

For more information about CGS see <http://www.globalsolutions.org>.

In exchange for this subsidy, CGS of St. Louis expects you to give us a brief written report about the meeting and what you learned from it.
(This gets published in our local newsletter.)
