

You have been drafted as an ambassador to the United Nations.

The world has a serious problem. And you're going to help solve it.

What is this?

This is a crisis simulation designed for high school students: we present a problem, and you work together to find a solution. No homework, no prep work, just show up and have fun with other civic minded students. The actual crisis is a surprise that will be announced at the event.

When: Saturday, September 7

Time: 9:00 am – 11:30 am

Where: Civitas Office. 10845 Olive Blvd., Suite 155; 63141

Cost: Free (snacks & drinks will be provided)

More info at www.civitas-stl.com

Find us on Facebook: Civitas Associates